2. The local officers were requested to state whether they have, as appointing authorities, laid down any rules for making appointments to the posts in Inferior Govt. Service and, if so, to what extent they can be modified to open posts to demobilised soldiers not conversant with English. None of the officers has laid down any definite rules for making appointments to the posts in Inferior Govt. Service. The conditions laid down in Rule 142 of Appendix D to the B.C.S.C.* are generally followed in all the Circles. *and Recruitment Rules.
3. The P.H.Engr. states that soldiers not knowing English can be appointed on the non-technical establt. The S.E., Project Circle, has no objection to throw open all such posts of inferior servants to candidates not conversant with English but who possess sufficient intelligence and physique, who are literate and can do cycling. The Dir., Dev. Deptt. Chawls, and S.E., D.I.C., prefer candidates who have passed Vernacular Final Examination. The knowledge of the local language is absolutely essential in the opinion of the Dir. Dev. Deptt. Chawls. and the S.E., Southern Circle.
4. It is for consideration whether the R.C.D. may be informed that the demobilised soldiers not conversant with English can be appointed to non-technical inferior posts. Appointments to these posts are governed by conditions laid down in rule 142 of Appendix 'D' to the B.C.S. Classification and Recruitment Rules. The demobilised demobilised soldiers not conversant with English but ~~knowing~~ knowing the regional languages can be appointed to the posts of peons, bungalow chowkidars, mukadams, khalasis, etc. It is not necessary to modify any of the recruitment rules with a view to throw open posts to demobilised soldiers not conversant with English.
